

Encountering New Worlds of Adoption Conference Evaluation

Please complete the following evaluation. Your honesty and constructive criticism are crucial to the success of ASAIK's future conferences. Thanks for your help! (Name is optional except for those seeking CEUs.)

1. I discovered new perspectives on adoption at this conference.      Yes      No
If yes, please give examples. If no, please explain.

2. I met new people with interests relevant to mine.      Yes      No
If no, how could conference planning better facilitate this?

3. I attended the following plenary sessions:
(Please answer as this information is important for those seeking CEUs.)

- Opening memoir panel
- Dorothy Roberts
- Emily Prager
- Evening of memoirs
- Friday morning first panel
- Susan Bordo
- Friday morning second panel
- Phil Bertelsen

4. I attended the following other sessions: (Also very important for those seeking CEUs.)
Please list sessions:

5. The most interesting full-length event was:

Please explain why:

6. The most interesting shorter event was:

Please explain why:

7. Please check all that apply, and explain:

- I am personally involved with adoption. How?
- I am professionally involved with adoption. How?
- I am seeking CEUs. Yes      No
- I am a writer. (What kind of writer?)
- I am a faculty member. (What do you study?)
- I am an activist. (How?)
- I am a student. (Where?)
- I expect to attend the session on writing transnational adoption at the Chicago MLA Conference. Yes      No
- I have joined ASAIK or plan to join. Yes      No

8. A listserv or newsletter we should use for publicity is:

9. I have the following suggestions for the next conference:

10. I might come to Pittsburgh for a day-long event on adoption on the following topic:

11. I live near Pitt and might come to an adoption-related event if it were held:

- On a weekend afternoon. Yes      No
- On a weekday evening. Yes      No
- On a weekday late afternoon. Yes      No

PLEASE PRINT OUT THIS FORM and SEND IT TO:

University of Pittsburgh
English Department
4200 Fifth Avenue, CL 526
Pittsburgh, PA 15260

Attn: ENWA Conf. Evaluation