

University of Pittsburgh

HISTORY OF THE DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

Edwin L. Peterson Magazine Publications

1. A series of one-page short stories for Brief Stories written while Peterson was an undergraduate (reprinted in The America Short Story, January 1930):

“Hedges,” July 1923

“Question,” September 1923

“Groping,” February 1923

“The Purple Ship,” January 1924

“Paganism,” February 1924

“Kin,” February 1925

2. “Francis Thompson: A Picture Biography,” in Virginia Quarterly Review, Spring, 1928. A short, essay length, fictionalized account of the life of the late Victorian poet, Francis Thompson. It could be a reworking of “Paganism,” published in Brief Stories, Feb 1924.

3. “Songs for my Soul,” in Poetry: A Magazine of Verse, December 1930, 138-139. A poem, in a late Victorian style.

4. “The Parmachene Bell,” Esquire (vol 14, 1940). Reprinted in Esquire’s Second Sports Reader, Arnold Gingrich, ed. (New York: A.S. Barnes & Co., 1946.) Reprinted in Fishing’s Best Stories, Paul D. Staudohar (ed.). Chicago Review Press, 2000. Includes stories by Stephen King and E. Annie Proulx.

